

LIST OF TABLES

Statistical Background

Frank Ellis

Table 1 Share of oil in the growth of world energy consumption, 1950-1972	18
Table 2 Growth in world petroleum product consumption, 1950-1970	19
Table 3 Regional distribution of world petroleum product consumption, 1950-1972	20
Table 4 World consumption pattern of petroleum products, 1971	21
Table 5 Distribution of world proven oil reserves, 1973	23
Table 6 Regional distribution of world crude oil production, 1950-1972	24
Table 7 International trade in oil, 1972	25
Table 8 The evolution of crude oil prices, 1955-1974 (with estimates to 1980)	29
Table 9 Petroleum exports from OPEC countries, 1972-1980	30
Table 10 Estimated OPEC government revenues per barrel, 1972-1980	31
Table 11 Estimated OPEC government revenues, 1972-1980	32
Table 12 The oil cost and balance of payments consequences for OECD countries, 1974	33
Table 13 Oil imports, 1972-1974 and perspectives of price and volume for 1980	40
Table 14 Oil imports of selected developing countries, 1972-1980	41
Table 15 Incremental oil import expenditures of developing countries due to effect of price increases since 1970	42
Table 16
A. Data on low-income countries seriously affected by the increase in oil prices	43
B. Data on middle-income countries seriously affected by the increase in oil prices	44
C. Data on higher-income countries seriously affected by the increase in oil prices	45

LIST OF TABLES

Can OPEC Maintain Current Prices?

Manuel Fombona

Table 1 Three scenarios for oil supply in the 1970s 72

Table 2 Factors determining oil production – the economic characteristics of the OPEC countries 75

OPEC as a Model for Other Mineral Exporters

Cres Barker and Bill Page

Table 1 Location of mineral reserves 82

Table 2 Prices obtained by producers under cif delivery conditions, 1970 83

Table 3 Uses of and substitutes for copper 89

Assessing the Impact on Developing Countries and Some Policy Suggestions

Richard Jolly

Table 1 Populations of OPEC member countries, grouped by level of income and continent 100

Table 2 Populations of oil importers hardest hit by oil price increases, grouped by level of income and continent 101

Table 3 Impact of oil price increases on different country groups of the world economy 102