THE BAROMETER OF SOCIAL TRENDS

*What the Press
had to say ...*

'That absolutely indispensable publication ... We need better research, the kind of research published inter alia in Indicator SA.' Cape Times, August 1984.

INDICATOR
SOUTH AFRICA

THE BAROMETER OF SOCIAL TRENDS

'Indicator SA, an authoritative academic journal that attempts to come to terms with the facts behind what are otherwise emotive political issues.' Business Day, January 1987.

'The government cannot argue with facts and Indicator SA has a habit of producing disturbing statistics.' The Natal Mercury, May 1987.

'Indicator SA stands by the quality of editorial analysis and in-depth data it provides on current socio-economic trends ... such independent coverage has become essential for the serious business reader in contemporary South Africa.' Finance Week, July 1988.

'Indicator SA has achieved an enviable reputation for skilled, in-depth research ... its impartiality and accuracy are acknowledged. Indicator occupies a unique position in the information supply in our rapidly-changing society.' The Natal Mercury, July 1988.

'A special ten point strategy, which includes possible selective participation in the system, is spelt out in a special publication of the authoritative Indicator SA.' The Star, March 1989.

Indicator Project South Africa.
Contributing to informed debate among South
African decision makers of all persuasions.
Will you join them?

In this climate of change and reform, access to facts behind the emotive issues is essential. This is the rationale behind Indicator SA — to bring the South African debate into the open. To provide a forum where all sides can be heard. To provide data analysis, trend diagnosis and policy prognosis.

The result is a quarterly journal divided into five monitors:
political, economic, rural & regional, urban and industrial.

Indicator SA is available by subscription and from selected bookshops.

Free — by subscription only

As part of our service to subscribers, you will receive at least two major reports on conflict issues in addition to your four Indicator SA editions during your subscription year.

These reports are definitive studies of restricted circulation and are highly prized.

As a subscriber you receive them free!
